Welcome to Inspire Justice 2023!

Following the success of the inaugural Inspire Justice Awards last November, I am delighted to share our plans for the return event. This year's awards will take place at the Queen Elizabeth II Centre in central London, with views overlooking Westminster Abbey and Big Ben.

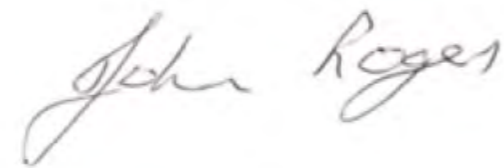

The essence of these awards is to give thanks and recognition to the thousands of operational and support staff across the UK that keep our justice system moving. These vital roles, which span everything from emergency call handlers to court ushers to prison administrators, help to keep the public safe.

Delivered by Skills for Justice, the UK's Sector Skills Council, the Inspire Justice Awards will shine a light on the achievements of the justice sector workforce across 11 categories.

On behalf of Skills for Justice, I invite you to join us in celebrating these outstanding individuals and teams by supporting these awards as a sponsor.

We have a range of opportunities designed to help raise your profile within the sector, and by aligning your organisation with the awards, you can join us in publicly celebrating these unsung heroes.

We hope you can join us and offer your support.

John Rogers
Chief Executive
Skills for Justice

Why support the Inspire Justice Awards?

Raise your profile

Be recognised as a champion for the justice sector workforce, including courts and tribunals, policing, prison and probation, and emergency services.

Grow your network

Join us for the Inspire Justice Awards ceremony and meet with senior figures from the sector including national bodies, MPs, and Skills for Justice members such as the National Crime Agency and the Ministry of Justice.

Increase brand awareness

As a supporter, your logo will be included on the Inspire Justice Awards webpages, industry-leading newsletter, social media, PR activity, and at the awards ceremony.

A chance to celebrate staff

These awards are for your employees too! As a valued member of the justice sector, your staff may qualify for one or more of our award categories. Nominating them is a fantastic way to recognise their contribution.

About Skills for Justice

Skills for Justice is a not-for-profit organisation that champions the community safety and criminal justice workforce.

We have collaborated with a range of justice sector employers and national bodies to develop workforce and skills solutions that improve jobs and benefit the public.

The Inspire Justice Awards demonstrate our unwavering commitment to championing the entire workforce, without whom the system in the UK simply could not operate.

We want to say ‘thank you’ to all those who have gone above and beyond to make a difference in making our communities safer.
